CONDITIONS OF SALE

1. No order of the customer placed with the company (whether in response to a quotation or not) shall be binding on the company unless it is accepted in writing. The company is not obliged to accept cancellation of accepted orders and may require payment of a cancellation charge before accepting any cancellation.
2. Any contract made between the company and the customer (hereinafter called the contract) shall incorporate and be subject to these conditions: Any other terms, which the customer shall seek to incorporate into the contract, are hereby expressly excluded.
3. All the terms of the contract shall be those contained expressly or by reference in the company's acceptance or order and any representations or warranty whether written or oral made or given prior to the date of the contract is expressly excluded.
 - a) The price for the goods shall be as set out in the company's order acknowledgment or invoice but the company reserves the right at its option to charge or credit to the buyer the amount of any error or omission in the price as so set out.
 - b) The buyer agrees that the company shall have the right at any time before delivery of the goods to withdraw any discount and/or to revise any price quoted, if, after the company's acceptance of any order,
 - (1) there is an increase or decrease in the company's generally applicable prices for such (or similar goods), or
 - (2) there is an increase or decrease in the cost to the company of supplying the goods whether by reason of exchange rate fluctuations, third party changes or otherwise.
 - c) Unless otherwise specified VAT and other duties or taxes payable by the buyer shall be added to the price.
5. The company intends to use its best endeavors to comply with any date or dates for dispatch or delivery of the goods stated in the contract but unless the contract expressly otherwise provides, time shall not be of the essence of the contract and such date or dates shall constitute only statements of expectation and shall not be binding. If notwithstanding that the company has used its best endeavors it fails to dispatch or delivery the goods by such date, or dates, such failure shall not constitute a breach of the contract and the customer shall not be entitled to treat the contract as thereby repudiated or to rescind it or any related contract in whole or in part or to claim compensation for such failure.
6. Unless exact quantities are specified in the company's acceptance of order, orders shall be regarded as completed notwithstanding a deficiency or surplus in quantity of not more than 10 per cent and the company reserves the right to adjust the price accordingly.
7. The company reserves the right to make partial deliveries. Goods in each delivery or part delivery shall be considered sold under separate contract, which may be invoiced separately. Neither any non-delivery, or shortages in delivery nor any claim by the buyer in respect of any delivery or part delivery shall entitle the buyer to reject any other goods.
8. Every effort is made to ensure sound materials and good workmanship, but all warranties and conditions express or implied as to materials or workmanship, or the merchantability or fitness of goods for any particular purpose, whether such purpose be known to the seller or not, are excluded. In the event of any goods proving defective however, the seller is prepared at its sole option either:-
 - i) to replace such materials free of charge, at the place of delivery and in the condition originally specified, or
 - ii) refund to the buyer the contract price of such goods, if required to do so, within a reasonable time, but not later than 12 months from the date of delivery. Any liability is limited to such replacement or refund and does not extend to any other expenditure incurred or to any consequential damages. For this warranty to apply the goods must:-
 - a) have been accepted and paid for by the buyer and
 - b) be found upon examination by the seller to be defective, owing to faulty materials or workmanship. The seller accepts no responsibility for fair wear and tear, incorrect or defective storage, fitting, installation or use, unauthorised reconditioning or repair, accident, neglect or cause beyond the seller's control.
9. The company shall be entitled to interest on any part of the contract price not paid by its due date from the date of invoice until payment at the rate of 5 per cent per annum above The Royal Bank of Scotland's Base Rate prevailing from time to time during such period.
10. Delivery of the goods shall be made to the buyer at the place agreed between the parties and the risk in respect of all goods shall pass to the buyer at the time of delivery. If no place for delivery is agreed, delivery shall take place at the seller's works immediately prior to loading for dispatch to the buyer.
11. The customer hereby agrees to pay to the company (on the basis of a full indemnity) all costs, charges and expenses incurred by the company in collecting or attempting to collect any indebtedness of the customer to the company.
12. If the customer is insolvent or shall fail to pay any amount upon its due date then the customer will be deemed to have repudiated all contracts and all sums owing to the company on any account shall become due and payable forthwith without any requirement for any notice to be given.
13. The customer shall not be entitled to withhold payment of any amount due and payable to the company under this or any other contract because of any dispute or claim by the customer in respect of faulty goods or any other alleged breach of contract nor shall the customer be entitled to set-off against any amount payable under the contract, any monies which are not then due and payable by the company or in respect of which the company disputes liability.
 - a) The company shall not be under any liability whatsoever or howsoever arising from any loss or use or loss of profits, interruption of business or any other indirect, special or consequential losses of any type arising or alleged to have arisen out of any act or default of the company in respect of its obligations hereunder.
 - b) the company aggregates liability to the buyer hereunder or otherwise arising whether for negligence, breach of contract, misrepresentation or otherwise shall in no circumstances exceed the cost of the defective, damaged or undelivered goods which give rise to such liability as determined by the net price invoiced to the customer in respect of any occurrence of scenes of occurrences.
15. The contract between the seller and the buyer is governed by English law and the buyer submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
16. The seller reserves the right of any payments not met within the arranged period will have all discounts revoked and the full purchase price will be applicable.
